

October 4th

- distribution of work (put this in past tense and pretend like we are done this)
- Create Gantt chart (1-day)
- Brain storm Functionality and methods for implementation (1-day)
- Mock-up, Requirement Analysis, and defining the tools used in the project (1-day)

October 11th

- Create data flow diagram (1-day)
- Design Document Architecture diagrams (1-day)
- Discuss User Interface and graphical implementation (1-day)
- Create empty project and get app started (7-day)

October 18th

- Prepare functionality, data formatting and storage (1-day)
- Code and implement log-in function (7-days)

October 25th

- Code and implement Data Fetching (7-days)
- create logo and design (2-days)
- Implementing APIs and creating Databases (14 Days)
- Building activities and testing phase (5 Days)
- Getting APIs from WHO for worldwide, individual countries and specific states

November 7th

- Implementing APIs and creating Databases (14 Days)
- Code and implement Interface formatting (7-days)
- Test app for user experience and document points for improvement (1-day)

- Release of Beta version and testing user experience, databases and APIs testing

November 14th

- Implement feedback and finalize project version(3-days)
- Compile a master PowerPoint for presentation (2-days)
- Present the project to class(1-day)